

EDUCATION

MS Criminology, Texas A&M University-Commerce

MS Business Management, Texas A&M University-Commerce

BAAS, Midwestern State University

Biography

John H. Choyce Jr. is a retired Fort Worth Police Officer who has served in a variety of assignments during his more than 25 year career in the law enforcement profession. Additionally, Mr. Choyce is a retired Master Sergeant who has served a total of 22 years while serving in the United States Marine Corps Reserve, United States Army Reserve, and the United States Air National Guard. Mr. Choyce has an extensive experience in instructing in a variety of subject matters, including Criminology, Multiculturalism, Racial Profiling, History of Policing, and Ethics in the Criminal Justice Profession.

Some of the positions that he held while employed with the FWPD:

- Patrol
- SIU (Special Investigations Unit) Vice
- Police Academy Instructor
- Background Investigations
- Police Recruiter

Mr. Choyce's research interests are in the area of multicultural perspectives within the contemporary police profession, millennials and contemporary policing, and multicultural perceptions and the law enforcement profession.

Mr. Choyce resides with his family in Midlothian, Texas.